

London Office Directions

16 Connaught Place

London, W2 2ED

United Kingdom

Connaught Place is close to Marble Arch, at the bottom of the Edgware Road, on the west side, running parallel with the Bayswater Road. This is a pedestrian-only entrance but there is vehicle access from Stanhope Place

Parking: Pay & Display parking is available for a limited time (2 hour maximum) in Connaught Place. If longer parking is required there are NCP car parks under Hyde Park or in Kendal Street or Bryanston Street. Congestion Charge Zones should be checked if you wish to avoid them

The nearest underground station is Marble Arch (on the Central Line).

ON FOOT

Connaught Place has a wide pedestrian entrance close to the Marble Arch end of the Edgware Road. Buses to Paddington station stop outside and buses from Paddington stop opposite. 16 Connaught Place is a brick building on the north side of the Place and Spencer Stuart is on the ground floor.

FROM AIRPORTS & TRAIN STATIONS

Heathrow Airport: Paddington/Heathrow Express (travel time approx 20 mins); or the Piccadilly Line underground to Hyde Park Corner (travel time approx. 45 mins).

Gatwick Airport: main line train to Victoria (frequent service, travel time approx. 35 mins).

City Airport: Water taxi to Westminster Pier or black cab. Journey time varies depending on traffic, at least one hour.

St Pancras International (Eurostar terminus): Taxi to office.

Connaught Place is an easy taxi ride from most of the major train stations apart from Liverpool Street, from where it is quicker and easier to take the Central Line underground to Marble Arch. Paddington Station is a short distance away and the No. 36 bus from Praed Street (in front of the station) to the last stop in the Edgware Road (before Marble Arch) will take 5 to 8 minutes. The No. 36 also comes past Victoria Station, and the first bus stop in the Edgware Road (Marble Arch) is exactly at the pedestrian entrance of Connaught Place. The journey time is about 10 to 12 minutes.
